WELCOME

Acknowledgement of Country

AWESOME Arts Australia acknowledges the Traditional Owners of country throughout Australia and recognises their continuing connection to land, waters and community. We pay our respects to them and their cultures and to elders past, present and emerging. We are proud that this Festival takes place on Whadjuk Noongar Boodja.

Welcome to the 2023 AWESOME Festival!

You'll love this year's program, packed full of magic, wonder and fun for all ages. We're so excited to once again be working with artists from all around the country to bring together an internationally recognised festival that connects children with storytelling through a range of art forms.

Once again, we've commissioned a beautiful children's ballet to present free performances which, this year, will be Little Red Riding Hood. You can catch it on the main stage each day at 10am and 11am.

We have another stellar line-up of performances and shows, including the Perth premier of the Albany-grown The Magical Weedy Seadragon by Breaksea and the premiere of the children's version of acclaimed musical sensation Space Music by Australian Baroque.

We're also thrilled to be co-presenting two programs which allow us to not only present beautiful art for children but also to mentor local artists. Make sure you check out Alex and Evie and the Forever Falling Rain by Every Other Theatre Company co-presented with The Blue Room Theatre, and our exhibition at the State Theatre Centre of WA created by Artist in Residence Declan White, co-presented with DADAA.

Also not to be missed on the theatre circuit, Windmill Theatre Company bring Ted Prior's Grug to life in Grug and the Rainbow, Holly Austin gives a whole new meaning to sound and mime in Dr AudiYO's Giant Adventure, Madness of Two go on an adventure to the stars in Claire Della and the Moon, and the fabulous folks at Sensorium Theatre are back with the critically acclaimed Wonderbox.

For an interactive art experience, check out Patch Theatre's delightful Sea of Light installation or join Paul Rowe in his behind-the-scenes backstage adventure Theatre of Dreams. You can also join celebrated graphic storyteller James Foley for a comic book workshop.

This year we are excited to be partnering with the City of Armadale to present a very special AWESOME FESTIVAL HUB at Kelmscott Hall on 23-24 September, and in another first, we will be welcoming world-renowned artist Evelyn Roth and her Nylon Zoo in Perth. Head to the Yagan Square amphitheatre to experience the fun these gorgeous inflatable creatures bring.

If some chillout time is what you're looking for, why not join Sensorium Theatre, Renae Hayward, Kelly Canby, Katie Stewart and Isobel Bevis for some bookish delights in our Story Hub, hosted by the one and only Glenn Swift.

And of course, you can't miss our artist-led creative hubs for fun, free activities throughout the festival. Whether you're making music, learning some circus skills, weaving wetland animals, getting crafty, looking for natural treasure, or wandering through the magnificent children's market of home-made goods, there's something for everyone.

While Grug is searching for a rainbow, we can help you find one easily at Chicho Gelato with our special edition Grug Gelato. Don't forget to drop in and have a taste while you're in the city.

We are so excited to welcome you back to another festival filled to the brim with opportunities to learn, grow and most importantly – imagine! On behalf of the entire team at AWESOME, I can't wait for you to experience the magic of the festival this September school holidays.

I'll see you there!

Jenny Simpson
& Team AWESOME

Lord Mayor Basil Zempilas

On behalf of the City of Perth, welcome everyone to the 2023 AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things.

Every September School Holidays the AWESOME Festival highlights what a great destination our city is for families, where you'll find world class theatre, dance, music, exhibitions, workshops, literature and film.

The Perth Cultural Centre will come alive with activities, exhibitions and performances including Grug and the Rainbow by Windmill Theatre. I know that every year at the festival, thousands of families enjoy the free children's ballet and this year will be an absolute winner with Little Red Riding Hood taking the stage.

Journey with your family into outer space at the State Library of WA with Australian Baroque's Space Music, and whilst you're there you can brush up on your circus skills, weave a gigantic turtle or learn to play the ukulele at the free artist-led creative hubs.

The AWESOME Festival is very affordable for families with half the program presented free of charge. Once again, the festival has teamed up with City of Perth Parking to ensure that families get great value when they attend the event.

The City of Perth is definitely the place to be for families, and the 2023 AWESOME Festival is the place to be these September School Holidays.

I wish the 2023 AWESOME Festival every success and look forward to welcoming families to the City of Perth these school holidays.

See you in the City.

Roger Cook MLA Premier

Welcome to the 2023 AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things.

The State Government, through the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC) and Lotterywest, is proud to support AWESOME Arts and give families the opportunity to share in a delightful celebration of arts and culture during the school holidays.

The AWESOME Festival offers young people and their families access to arts, culture and creativity while showcasing our vibrant and thriving State to visitors.

The 2023 AWESOME Festival program features some outstanding Western Australian talent. Breaksea's premiere of The Magical Weedy Seadragon will take us on a transformative adventure from shore to ocean, which I'm sure will delight. I am also very pleased that the festival will once again invite thousands of children and their families to experience Little Red Riding Hood, directed by Andries Weidemann, for free.

As ever, there is a vast array of Western Australian authors, performers and visual artists in this year's program, demonstrating the richness and diversity of cultural talent in WA.

Recognising the importance of engaging young people in quality arts experiences and creative processes, I encourage you to get involved, try something new, be curious and use your imagination.

I am sure you will enjoy the 2023 AWESOME Festival and the excellence and wonder the festival has to offer.

David Templeman MLA Minister for Culture and the Arts

Welcome to the 2023 AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things.

With the support of the State Government, the 2023 AWESOME Festival Program features a wide range of world class acts across theatre, music, visual art, film, literature and creative workshops.

This year at the AWESOME Festival our magnificent State Theatre Centre will once again come alive as a festival hub featuring extraordinary shows, exhibitions, and hands-on activities including Grug and the Rainbow, Sensorium Theatre's magical Wonderbox and the immensely popular free circus hub with Yip Yip Circus.

The AWESOME Festival always shines a light on our extraordinary West Australian talent and 2023 is no exception. Check out the hilarious new version of Little Red Riding Hood, the new children's ballet directed by Andries Weidemann, and Emotional First Aid Ambulance by Lex Randolph. The Magical Weedy Sea Dragon by Breaksea will captivate one and all and if, like me, you love colourful artwork, then you'll be inspired by our Festival Artist-in-Residence, Declan White. Declan has been working with his DADAA arts mentors to create a truly delightful exhibition for us all to enjoy!

2023 sees the inclusion of an AWESOME Festival hub in Kelmscott in partnership with the City of Armadale so jump on a Transperth train and head south for a weekend of AWESOME fun and creativity at the Kelmscott Hall on the weekend of 23-24 September.

As Minister for Culture and the Arts, I am a proud supporter of the AWESOME Festival. I love that it focuses on engagement and participation of young people, and the Festival delivers fantastic opportunities to Western Australian families.

I hope to see you there!

LION IS THAT YOU?

Moira Court

Rumoured sightings of ex-circus cats left to roam wild in Western Australian bush is the inspiration behind Moira Court's, Lion is that you? a book that asks you to 'take a good look around. Are there really lions to be found?'

The intricate collage work and draft materials from her picture book will be on display at The Story Place Gallery of the State Library of WA. As you look closely at each illustration, what can you see hidden amongst the unique WA flora and fauna? Are there any clues that a big cat has been there?
